Un Viaggio in Sicilia

The wine

To brighten your palate and accompany the best dishes of our chef, we selected the wines following the traditional territorial combination.

We offer you the choice between different Italian labels, the result of a personal research and evolving. We decided this time to emphasize the south starting right from indigenous and international grape varieties in Sicily, touching different Italian regions.

We could not offer some of the more famous French grape varieties that respond to the dishes and the taste we like to offer the guests Sikelaia Restaurant.
